Governor,

I spent time some time today speaking with a few House Finance members on AGIA. I had individual meetings with Rep. Chenault, Rep. Meyer, and Rep. Mike Kelly.

I've got strategic thoughts I'd rather not type out here but perhaps we can speak soon.

All the best,

Sean

Shane reports that we can have the King Air on Friday, May 4 to take the Governor to Barrow. She'll be in Fairbanks all day May 3 (Thursday). She could overnight Fbx and go to Barrow Friday morning May 4, do an event or two, and fly Barrow/Juneau (with a fuel stop somewhere) Friday afternoon or evening. She goes to Skagway Sunday May 6. The pilots need to know asap if we need to plan a Barrow trip. Please limit passengers to 4 people.

We discussed the kids events before you left....you said to work them in if you could get to FBXS and do them in one day. We could get you back to Juneau that night or early the next day. Also there are two requests for Friday, May 4 in Anchorage, Anch International Rotary at Noon and Speech to Champions for children (Mat-Su Educators Assn, Janis Bishop) in Wasilla at 6:00pm Friday night that you were "considering." We just need to decide if you want to come back to Juneau or hop over to Anchorage after Fbx events. Then you go to Skagway May 6, Sunday.

The winners of the Governor's Denali Awards have been selected. These awards recognize state employees for excellence in service to the State of Alaska. Most of the winners are from the Anchorage area. Will the Governor be in Anchorage during the second week of May? If the awards could be handed out then, it would coincide with Public Service Recognition Week.
